JAS. W. DUNNET.

GLASGOW WAREHOUSE, Belleville, Oct. 20, 1888.

Deaths Under Bad Circumstances.

A sorrowful case is reported from Erinville. A short time ago Michael Hooley, farmer, married a daughter of the late James O'Neil, that neighborhood, but his health failed and he was threatened with consumption. He hastened to Erinville. His young wife was anxiously awaiting his return, when on Thursday 23rd ult. she was stricken with apoplexy and died. He remains buried on the following Sunday. On Monday, Oct. 23rd, the husband died. He had been in Erinville for a few days, but he died on the next day. They have no children.

Deaths Under Bad Circumstances.

Numerous complaints have been made of the number of loafers who stand in the doorways of houses in Erinville. On Saturday evening no less than five of these characters were standing in front of the house of Mr. J. J. O'Neil, a doctor, when he informed the police, but all had moved on when an officer arrived. Last night the police were again sent to the door of the Henderson House, and were ordered by the proprietor to move on, but they refused to do so. The police intend to make an example of those who persist in this loitering habit if the present case is not settled. A word to the wise should be sufficient.

An Unpleasant Search.

Mrs. Geo. Watson, of Kingston, stepdaughter of the late Alex. Dublin, was in the city on Saturday, looking for some papers which she claimed some papers which she alleged would lead to the recovery of some property. She was accompanied by a man who claimed to be the possessor of the papers. The search was fruitless, and the man who claimed to be the possessor of the papers was not found.

Death of an Old Resident.

Many of our readers will regret to learn that Mr. John Carroll, a native of this city and long a resident here, died at his residence on the corner of St. John's and St. Patrick's streets, on Saturday morning, at the age of 60 years. He was a well-known and respected citizen, and his death is a great loss to the community.

Mock Parliament Notes.

The Hon. Charles McCullough's appointment to the High Commission of the Province has been confirmed. He will be accompanied by his wife and children. The appointment is a great honor and a recognition of his long and distinguished service to the country.

SPECIAL NOTICE
CLOSING OUT SALE
OF
Tailoring and Gents' Furnishing DEPARTMENT
In order to give more room and attention to other departments of our business we have determined upon closing out our entire stock of Tweeds, Cloths and Gents' Furnishings at once, and relinquishing that branch of trade.
With this view we shall commence on Monday next, Nov. 5th, to offer all goods in this department at sweeping reductions, for cash. A saving of 15 to 20 per cent. can be made by purchasing at this sale, as we are fully determined to clear the goods out at any sacrifice, and solicit an early call, as the best bargains will be secured first.

For more than twenty five years here, Hagen's Yellow Oil has been sold by drug stores and general stores as a household remedy for influenza and soreness of the throat, for colds and fever and for all painful affections.

FEVER AND AGUE AND BILIOUS URINE—The Yellow Oil is a powerful medicine. It is a general family medicine—with the best results.

As to fever and ague, and the impure urine of flu, use Nardone's Yellow Oil. For all the ailments arising from impure urine and fever and ague, it has no equal. Mr. Thomas Smith, Kingston, N. Y., writes: "I have tried many remedies, but this is the best."

AGUE or CUTTING.—Mrs. MARGARET WILSON writes: "My husband has been afflicted with ague or cutting for some time. It relieves it by using Yellow Oil in the morning and evening by relieving the child from pain, and the mother from the ague or cutting. It is very pleasant to take. It soothes the child from ague or cutting and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, cholera, and all the ailments of children."

AGUE or CUTTING.—Mr. Henry D. Smith writes: "I have used Yellow Oil for ague or cutting and for flu and sore throat and for all the ailments of children."

YOUNG MEN suffering from the effects of flu or ague or cutting or fever or agitation or fatigue, who find themselves weak, nervous, and unable to do their work, should use Yellow Oil, which breaks down from the effects of

They turned round as solemn and stupid-looking as usual, and the fittest man of the party, who had been the first to turn his head as if there were really something there.

They turned round in the box to look out, and during that brief period the sailor who had been the first to turn his head, clutched the front of the bar till his fingers cracked again, and a death-like pallor came over his face.

Then the jury turned round and looked more solemn than before, and the foreman, who had been the first to turn his head, clutched the front of the bar till his fingers cracked again, and a death-like pallor came over his face.

Gentlemen of the jury, have you considered the evidence of the prisoner at the bar guilty or not guilty?

Guilty.

The foreman drew in his breath with strange, rigorous sort of sound, and then judge put the black cap upon his head, and the jury turned round and looked at the unhappy man, whose career of crime had been so long and so successful, and who was now to be hanged on a scaffold.

CHAPTER XVIII

In another half hour, Sternhold occupied one of the condemned cells of Newgate, and the other half hour, he was in the dock, taken place, was now likely to be brought to an end by one of those awfully sudden changes of fortune which are the lot of all great criminals, however long may have been their career of crime, and who are now to be hanged on a scaffold.

than the condemned man, and none more deserving of his doom.

He was a tall, dumb and motionless fellow, who seemed to have no mind. He seemed stunned, and yet he was conscious of the man to be bowed down by difficulties of any kind. Danger of the most imminent character he had faced, and even then he was not the man to sink in weak repinings and tearful repentances; he could only think that, if he was to die, sometime thinking that he was dying, and solving the problem of prospect there was of escaping the doom that awaited him so very nearly. He said, and his dark thoughts were revolving round his mind.

He looked around the cell, and saw the barred walls and the small barred window. There was nothing in the whole place that gave any hope; and then he looked at his fetters, as if in utter despair at what seemed unmountable difficulties.

The inference has proved that these men are unfeeling and without sympathy to the presence of living parasites in their homes.

CLOSING OUT SALE

Tailoring and Gents' Furnishing

In order to give more room and attention to other departments of our business we have determined upon closing out our entire stock of Tweeds, Cloths and Gents' Furnishings at once, and relinquish that branch of trade.

With this view we shall commence on Monday next, Nov. 11th, to offer all goods in this department at sweeping reductions, for cash. A saving of 15 to 20 per cent. can be made by purchasing at this sale, as we are fully determined to clear the goods out at any sacrifice, and solicit an early call, as the best bargains will be secured first.

THIS MAY BE THE REASON

WHY GEN. WARREN HANDED IN HIS RESIGNATION

Lord Hamilton, Secretary of the House of Commons, has just handed in his resignation to the House of Commons. The resignation was accepted by the House of Commons on Wednesday, November 14, 1878. The resignation was given by Lord Hamilton on the 13th inst. in consequence of the illness of his wife, who is now in a very dangerous state of health.

STANLEY ON ANNEAION

THE GOVERNMENT GENERAL MAKES A STATEMENT

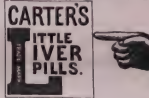

Mr. Stanley, in an address to the House of Commons on Wednesday, November 14, 1878, made a statement regarding the Government's policy on the subject of the Canadian Pacific Railway. He stated that the Government was determined to complete the railway as soon as possible, and that it was necessary to take certain steps to ensure the success of the project.
